CARLTON WEAVER'S DEFENSE

Facts Controvert Roddie's Charge That Carlton Weaver Caused His Indictment

Mr. R. M. Roddie, candidate for state senator, publicly accused me of going to Muskogee, and reviving an old indictment of last January, which he claims had been thrown out, and causing his arrest upon the charge of forgery, which occurred last Friday afternoon. I hereby make a statement that I trust every man who loves fair play and justice will read and weigh.

If I have slandered Mr. Roddie, if I did go to Muskogee and revive a charge against him, which, as he says, was thrown out and ignored last January, and caused his arrest, I deserve to be criticised, even condemned as a slanderer. On the other hand, if I had nothing to do with the charge, indictment or arrest, R. M. Roddie deserves to be criticised, even condemned, for he charges and indicts me with a crime which I consider grave and heinous.

When Mr. Roddie says that I was in any way responsible for the indictment or arrest, he says that which is not true. He told many individuals on the streets of Ada Saturday, substantially, that there was nothing in the charge, that the grand jury dismissed the case last January, but that I went to Muskogee, got the witnesses together, renewed the charge, and had the warrant issued. By inference and in substance, he conveyed the same thought in speech on the streets of Ada Saturday.

It pains me to have to make this defense, for in order to prove to you that I had nothing to do with this matter, that Mr. Roddie wrongfully accuses me, I must necessarily give out information and facts that I would prefer withholding.

An official and certified copy of the complaint will speak more authoritatively than either Mr. Roddie or myself, and in order to substantiate that I had nothing whatever to do with the indictment or warrant, and further substantiate that Mr. Roddie has falsely accused me, I feel compelled to publish the verbatim copy of the official indictment and warrant.

GENERAL FORM OF INDICTMENT.
United States of America, Indian Territory, Western District, ss.

In the United States Court, in the Indian Territory, for the Western District of said Territory, at the January term A. D. 1907.

United States

R. M. Roddie,

Defendant.

INDICTMENT FOR FORGERY.

The Grand Jurors of the United States of America, duly selected, impaneled, sworn and charged to inquire within and for the body of the Western District of the Indian Territory, do hereby certify that

EARLY HEARING EXPECTED

Appeal From Court's Anti-Statehood Ruling

Guthrie, Okla., May 28.—Challenging the authority of the defendant in error, G. E. Autrey, to institute a suit either in a private or official capacity, and declaring that the constitutional convention has the power to create counties under the section of the enabling act which gives the convention authority "to form a constitution and state government for the proposed state," attorneys for the constitutional convention filed their briefs in the supreme court in appealing from the decision of Judge Pancoast of Alva.

In the case made filed today dissolution was asked of the permanent injunction granted by Judge Pancoast restraining Gov. Frantz, President Murray and Secretary Young of the convention from issuing an election proclamation until the division of organized counties in Oklahoma is eliminated.

It is maintained that the convention

has power to divide for elections in such new counties as the Oklahoma election law has no provision for creating such election machinery.

It is also held that the convention may adjourn and reconvene for the purpose of providing an ordinance for an election in the new counties.

In perfecting an appeal the statement is made that the district court erred in making the injunction permanent, and the supreme court is requested to dissolve it.

The court will convene on June 4 in the regular June session, and in all probability the case will be advanced on the docket and heard early in the session.

It is rumored today that Chief Justice Burford may not sit in the case in the supreme court. He passed upon the same question in the district court of this county when an injunction was asked by citizens of Greer county.

WHAT THEY SAY OF WILLIAMS

Copious Compliments for the Brilliant Durant Statesman

"C. S. Treadwell of Tishomingo, we understand, has withdrawn from the race for state senator to enter the race for judge of the supreme court against R. L. Williams of Durant. Why this sudden change we know not, but we have been expecting all along that some kind of an 'excuse' would be railroaded on the ticket to oppose Mr. Williams. Bob Williams has been under the yoke of public service, has been weighed by the common people and has been found to balance the scales of satisfaction with an up weight, and to be a man for the people and necessarily calls out the fact that the railroads must put forth an effort to defeat him. Treadwell is now, if he has not recently resigned, attorney for the Frisco railroad. The question readily arises, why did Treadwell switch from one office to another just in time to have his name placed on the ticket. For us we prefer to have a man who has been tried and found to be true to every promise to an untired railroad attorney. Johnson county, we believe, will give plain Bob Williams a flattering majority."

The above is copied from the Milledgeville News of May 24th, 1907.

The clipping hereto attached was cut from Spiro Tribune of May 23rd, 1907.

Just watch LaFlore county roll up its entire voting strength for the people's choice—Bob Williams, the brilliant attorney of Durant.

Last week we called attention to the fact that it was rumored that the corporations would fight Bob Williams as a candidate for the supreme bench, and that C. S. Treadwell, the Frisco attorney, of Tishomingo, was being groomed for that place. He has since announced his candidacy. He had heretofore been announced candidate for the new state senate. The question would naturally arise why did he enter the race at such a late hour? It comes to us that about two weeks ago he, with other Frisco attorneys, were called to, or at least assembled in St. Louis, Mo., in consultation with the general solicitor of the system. As soon as he returned he set about to run for the supreme bench. He went to Hume on a Frisco pass, for more than an hour and that party with the Frisco pass, is now an ardent supporter of the Frisco attorney, Mr. Treadwell, and other indications are of similar import. Let the people beware—remember that when railroads can not control they seek to destroy. R. L. Williams, who principally wrote the railroad and public service corporation provision in the constitution served the people and not the corporations, and he is the last man in the state that such corporations would want on the supreme bench. Vote for R. L. Williams, the faithful public-servant, rather than for Treadwell, who savors of corporation influence.

SULPHUR MASS MEETING

Murray County Citizens Meet and Pass Resolutions.

Sulphur, I. T., May 28.—A large crowd of Murray county citizens gathered in Sulphur today in response to a call for a mass meeting for the purpose of endorsing Murray and pledging him moral and financial support. The following in the way of resolutions was adopted:

1. We condemn the persistent and repeated efforts on the part of certain politicians in the new state of Oklahoma to defeat statehood.

2. We endorse the constitution as written by the delegates to the constitutional convention and call upon all our citizens to support the same.

3. That we are in favor of an early election upon the proposed constitution and earnestly request Gov. Frantz to call the election for that purpose at the very earliest opportunity, and if he fails or refuses to do so, then we earnestly ask the Hon. W. H. Murray, president of the constitutional convention, to call the same under the terms of the election ordinance. We promise our moral and financial support to all efforts that are made to give us an early

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE

Hereby is announced the Mason Drug Co. a candidate for the Most Popular Drug Store in Pontotoc county, subject to the action and approval of all people who want PURE DRUGS HONEST PRICES.

E. C. PATTON DESERVES IT

(From the (Tishomingo, I. T.) Chickasaw Capital.)

Johnson county will take an especial pride in rolling up a practically solid vote for our townsman, Mr. E. C. Patton, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, and the entire state should be interested in the election of such men. Not only is Mr. Patton thoroughly competent for the office he is seeking, but due weight should be given to the fact that, owing to the position he occupied in the constitutional convention as journal and minute clerk, he has been compelled to do a large amount of work for which he will receive no pay. It is true, the delegates went down in their pockets and put up money to pay a number of the employees rather than have them suffer the hardships they, themselves were compelled to undergo by reason of the parsimony of congress in refusing an appropriation. But Mr. Patton was too patriotic to take money for his services that had to be raised in that way, and therefore declined to receive any compensation for services rendered after the government appropriation was exhausted. Nor did Mr. Patton's work cease with the adjournment of the convention. Owing to the enormous amount of work that piled up incident to the closing of the convention, Mr. Patton found an amount of work that can scarcely be realized on his hands to complete after the adjournment. Since his return home, owing to the complications caused by the injunction proceedings he has been rendering valuable aid in assisting President Murray in a number of matters which require attention that could be performed only by some one entirely familiar with the work of the convention, in addition to which he was compelled to make a special trip to Guthrie to furnish the attorneys for the convention with certain data to be used in their argument before Judge Pancoast in the injunction proceedings. These sacrifices Mr. Patton has borne cheerfully, to the neglect of his own canvass, and will account to his friends for his seeming inactivity in not making a more active personal campaign. Mr. Patton deserves well at the hands of the people of Oklahoma.

CHOCTAW COUNTY ENDORSES HIS CANDIDACY

(Hugo Husonian, May 23, 1907)
To the Democrats of the 2nd Supreme Judicial District:

We the undersigned attorneys at law of Choctaw county and members of the democratic party desire to call attention of the voters of this district to the importance of a proper selection for justice of the supreme court from the 2nd supreme district. It will devolve upon the supreme court to establish precedents that will endure forever in this commonwealth and effect the destinies of generations. Before the candidates of the electorship force the primary of the democratic party there are two candidates for the nomination. In view of the importance of this office the undersigned members of the bar would call your attention to the qualifications of Hon. R. L. Williams of Bryan county. He has been a member of the bar of the Central District for over ten years and we can attest that as a lawyer of ability and fairness he is the peer of any. As chairman of the committee on corporations in the constitutional convention he drafted the provisions concerning corporations which the nation has pronounced the best of any of the states of the American Union. He has shown himself to be a man of the common people and not a tool of the corporations. Every railroad man in the entire state owes him a debt of gratitude for the fellow servant provision. His opponent is a railroad attorney. We will submit to the voters, will not the constitution be better construed by its author than a railroad lawyer?

We therefore heartily commend to the democracy Hon. R. L. Williams for justice of the supreme court from this the 2nd judicial district and would respectfully ask you to give him your support.

(Caddo Herald, May 25, 1907.)
The Herald believes in giving honor to whom honor is due. Bob Williams, of Durant is a candidate for the sudorsement to him. While in the formation of counties Caddo did not get what she wanted; yet she was never deceived by Bob Williams. He told us all along where he stood, and an honest man could not have stood in any other light. The 108 district elected him, and his duty was to give his people as good a county as possible. To show the rugged and unbought honesty of the man, had he said the word he could have secured easily a county for Bennington where he has more personal and real property than elsewhere, yet he would not do it; he preferred giving his people a county in which they could live without the dangerous taxation that will surely come to the smaller counties. Had he secured the county for Bennington his property would have doubled in value, and he would have become independently wealthy. The writer knows Bob Williams well; knows that his stand for the people is no demagoguery; knows that he is true to every promise, either otherwise; and knows him to be a man of clean personal life, and of fine legal knowledge. His being a member of the constitutional convention fits him more than ever to be one of the members of the supreme court; he knows the letter as well as the intent of the law, and one of the most important things is to have our first cases properly construed in the supreme court so that it will be precedent for future litigation. Bob Williams is the man to do this. This is not a paid announcement, but it is honestly thought and honestly given because the Herald desires true, clean men elected to the supreme court, and none are more worthy than our own Bob.

To the voters of Chickasaw township No. 2:

I hereby announce myself as candidate for the office of justice of the peace. I live at Hird, three miles northeast of Ada.

I was raised in east Tennessee, moved to the Indian Territory nearly two years ago.

I was raised in a county where the republicans had a strong majority, but I have always been a democrat of the Jeffersonian type. I am a democrat because I believe the democratic principles of government the best for the masses of the people.

I believe in dealing uprightly with my fellow man, and hold steadfastly to the principles of equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

It is not likely the voters will have time or care to go to old Tennessee to find how I stood in the community where I lived. I will refer you to those with whom I have had dealings nearer at hand. As follows: at Stonewall, Rollow & Jackson, Stonewall Trading Co., National bank, Sharpless Hardware Co., Dr. Breco, and Tip Denton; of Frisco or Old Stonewall, Parson Vernon, Dr. Blackburn, Correll Bros.; of Ada, Jih Price, Little Bros., and W. M. Freeman, and others too numerous to mention.

Respectfully submitted,
A. Gaylor.

Merryman for Trustee.

To the voters of Chickasaw Township No. 2:

I wish to inform you through the Ada News that I have decided to make the race for township trustee, subject to the democratic primary, June 8th.

I was born and reared in Trousdale county, Tenn.; at the age of 17 I moved to this country and have lived near Hird ever since.

I am a farmer and will greatly appreciate your support.

I am yours very truly,
H. P. Merryman.

From Constable to Weigher.

Voters will take notice that Chas. A. Thomas has withdrawn from the race for constable in Ada township and has announced for public weigher. Pontotoc is a great cotton county, and the people will want a reliable public weigher. Charlie Thomas is there. He would make a good one.

Tulsa, I. T. May 28.—The residence of Thomas E. Shaw, in the eastern part of the city, was burned last night by masked incendiaries. They entered the kitchen where Mr. Shaw was asleep in a chair, bound and gagged him and left him unconscious in a pile of weeds some distance from the house, after which they set fire to it. The house and contents were destroyed, with a loss of $3,000, covered by insurance. There is no clue.

Mr. Shaw was formerly publisher of the Tulsa Times and his family is prominent in social and religious circles.

Department of Woman's HOME MISSION SOCIETY M. E. Church, South.

Why Do We Have Home Missions?

5. We need home missions for our own soul's sake. Sending is not enough. It is when we go as Christ went, to see those within reach of our own feet and hands and voice, that we find our lord a present friend and companion, and drink deeper of the love that passes knowledge. "If we have set out to find the place of our King, resolving that we will enter it and live with him even as the most abject of minions, we are not in the right way, and we shall never find the palace, nor find the King. He is serving our poor brothers in wretched hovels, numberless and near at hand; and if we will join him in this service, we shall find Him there, and every hovel will seem unto us his palace."

The annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Home Missions was in session April 25 to May 1. A full and enthusiastic meeting was held. Progress and gain marked each department and new zeal was inspired by the visions of opportunity furnished all who carefully noted every item brought before the body.

The report of the general secretary shows 2,609 auxiliaries and 53,833 members, a gain of 246 auxiliaries and 6,325 members. There are 13,303 subscribers to Our Homes. There are 6,826 Home Mission women pledged to tithing.

At our meeting Monday we were pleasantly entertained by the Mite Box opening of the Florrie McEachern Brigade which was conducted by Mrs. Chapman.

In almost four years more than 12,000 children have enlisted in this Mite Box Brigade, and have raised $9,347.53. They will make it full $10,000.00 by the end of next quarter, which will complete the amount Mr. and Mrs. McEachern are to cover dollar for dollar.

These little people raised last year $2,345.43 through their dues and mite boxes. "A little child shall lead them."

25,000 CLUB WANTS M. E. CONFERENCE

At Their Meeting Last Night They Tried to Land It.

At a meeting of the 25,000 Club Monday evening the matter of inviting the annual conference of the M. E. church South for Oklahoma and Indian Territories to hold its session next November in Ada was brought up for discussion. All members present were enthusiastic over the opportunity of securing the meeting, and the club guaranteed $250 to assist in entertaining the members of the conference and visitors, and appeal to the entire citizenship of Ada to assist in the proposition, believing that it will bring much good to our city, and is one of the best advertising mediums within our reach at the present time. Rev. T. L. Rippey, who is now at Okmulgee, was immediately notified of the action of the club, and he at once took up the matter with those in authority and will doubtless secure the convention. Let's all pull together and make use of this excellent opportunity to bring our city favorably before all Oklahoma as well as almost every state in the union.

tory, in the name and by the authority of the United States of America, upon their oath do find, present and charge that one R. M. Roddie, on the 6th day of August, A. D., 1906, within the Western District of the Indian Territory, unlawfully and feloniously did falsely and fraudulently forge a certain written instrument for the payment of money, commonly called a promissory note, said promissory note being in words and figures following, to wit:

Porter, I. T. Aug. 6th, 1906.
Dec. first after date for value received I promise to pay R. M. Roddie, or order, one hundred and ninety-two and 75-100 Dollars payable at Muskogee, with interest payable annually at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from maturity. United States Court vs. R. M. Roddie.
Bail required $1,000.00
Bench Warrant, Office.

The official complaint itself speaks. It will be observed that the indictment was returned by the Grand Jury on January 21, 1907, and the warrant was issued on the same date by the judge of the court. Why the warrant was not served earlier, or sooner after the bill was found. The court officials, not I, can answer.

When this bill was found and this warrant for arrest issued, I was in Guthrie attending to my duties in the constitutional convention. I did not know the court was even in session. I did not know that Otis Weaver was going to be a candidate. Mr. Roddie himself had not announced. Furthermore, Mr. Roddie, as a lawyer, knows that a "Bench Warrant" cannot be issued except by the result of a Grand Jury indictment, therefore a jury and not an individual or set of individuals is responsible for this indictment. Information that Mr. Roddie was indicted last January came to my ears on a train more than a month ago. I did not repeat it to my most intimate friends. About a week ago I made a trip to Tulsa, Muskogee and South McAlester, in the interest of Henry M. Furman and a matter relating to business. While at Muskogee I was met on the street by a friend and was invited to his quarters. It was there that the matter of the indictment of Mr. Roddie again came to my ears, unsolicited, by a party who seemed to have a knowledge of Mr. Roddie's activity in Pontotoc county, also of him while a resident of Muskogee. The story that was told me on the train several weeks previous was corroborated at this time.

Mr. Roddie brings this publicity upon his own head by bringing me into this affair. What fair minded man can blame me for this defense?

Not until I returned from the country Friday did I know of the arrest, and agreed that no mention of it would be made in The Ada News, and were it not for Mr. Roddie's own accusation, The News would have given him the benefit of its silence.

I further invite anyone to make inquiry of court officials both at Muskogee and at Ada, as to whether I had anything to do with this matter.

I want this to burn into the mind of every man who reads this article: That I had rather see my brother, Otis Weaver, go down in defeat on June 8th, than see R. M. Roddie charged with a crime of which he is not guilty. I pray that he is not guilty, and that should he be so found, I want the world to know that he has been exonerated.

No man appreciates the preservation of character more than I, and I have never been successfully charged with slandering a fellow man. Those who remember the delegate campaign last fall can testify that neither my brother, Otis Weaver, nor I, personally or through The News uttered a single sentence derogatory to the character of Mr. Campbell, Mr. Rotenberry or Mr. Lawrence. The most sacred gift of God is a good name, and he who would falsely attack one's character, deserves condemnation.

Respectfully,
CARLTON WEAVER.

A Voter Wants Information.

Mr. Editor:

I notice in the Ardmore, a Cruce paper, that the Cruce club of 23, composed of Dr. Fite, surgeon for several railroads as its president, and members of the lumber trust, who are mad at Haskell on account of his effort to destroy this trust, are going to run a special train of seven coaches to Oklahoma City Friday night to hear Cruce speak and engage in bandwagon politics by fuss and show and return back to South McAlester and Atoka and thus convince the honest voters of those towns of the merits of Cruce, and that anyone can ride with them that wants. I don't know much about politics but I would like to vote right and I would like to know if this moneyed Cruce club at Muskogee and these railroads are in favor of a government that would be good for the laboring man and the farmer? Also why this lumber trust club, and railroad club, and coal club, known as the "Cruce club" are interested in Mr. Cruce? Some one has told me that Mr. Haskell, restricts them and destroys their opportunity to make money and that they are mad at Haskell for this. I want to know if Mr. Haskell did mistreat them in this way and if Mr. Cruce would act so unfair with them. Further is the glimmer and glare of the Cruce banners on palace cars, the fuss and show of these Cruce boosters, and the jingle and glimmer of the money changers' gold a satisfactory argument to the reason and good judgment of the voters or is Haskell's record in the convention better. I want to vote an honest vote and if I don't know, will some of the spellbinders tell me and greatly oblige.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

E. C. Adams Has Brilliant Record—
Endorsed by Home Judge.

Hon. E. G. McAdams, candidate for attorney general, who was among the first to announce for that office and who devoted his entire time during the campaign last fall in the interest of democracy, is recognized as one of the leading and successful lawyers of Oklahoma City.

Mr. McAdams was born and raised in Anderson county, S. C., receiving his education at the North Georgia Agricultural and Military college, a branch of the University of Georgia. Soon after leaving college he was admitted to the practice of law, locating in his native city, Anderson, S. C.

He had the distinction of raising the question as to the constitutionality of the County Salary Act passed by the general assembly of South Carolina in 1897, which, after a strong legal battle, he won, the supreme court declaring the act unconstitutional.

Within a year he also had the County Government Act declared unconstitutional by a decision of the same court. Judge Nance of South Carolina, in writing to Roy Stafford, Editor of the Oklahoman, said of Mr. McAdams: "As to his ability I will say that no young man ever came to the bar in this state who rose to eminence and acquired the confidence of the people as rapidly as did Mr. McAdams. Since the adoption of the new constitution of this state there has been only three laws declared unconstitutional and Mr. McAdams was attorney for two of these cases."

In 1900 he succeeded in having the County Government law throughout the state declared unconstitutional after a bitter fight, and since that time he has been recognized as one of the best constitutional lawyers in the state. There is no reason why all democrats as well as all republicans who desire to see a clean man in office, should not support him. He is honest, straightforward and a high-toned gentleman, and has the ability to fill the position to which he aspires."

EARLY HEARING EXPECTED

Appeal From Court's Anti-Statehood Ruling

Guthrie Okla. May 28.—Challenging the authority of the defendant in error G. E. Autrey to institute a suit either in a private or official capacity, and declaring that the constitutional convention has the power to create counties under the section of the enabling act which gives the convention authority to form a constitution and state government for the proposed state, attorneys for the constitutional convention filed their briefs in the supreme court in appealing from the decision of Judge Hancock of Alva.

In the case made filed today, the solution was asked of the permanent injunction granted by Judge Hancock restraining Gov. Frantz, President Murray and Secretary Young of the convention from issuing an election proclamation until the division of organized counties in Oklahoma is completed.

It is maintained that the convention

has power to divide for elections in such new counties as the Oklahoma election law has no provision for creating such election machinery.

It is also held that the convention may adjourn and reconvene for the purpose of providing an ordinance for an election in the new counties.

In perfecting in appeal the state petition is made that the district court erred in making the injunction permanent and the supreme court is requested to dissolve it.

The court will convene on June 4 in the regular June session and in all probability the case will be advanced on the docket and heard early in the session.

It is rumored today that Chief Justice Barford may not sit in the case in the supreme court. He passed upon the same question in the district court of this county when an injunction was asked by citizens of Creek

CARLTON WEAVER'S DEFENSE

Facts Controvert Roddie's Charge That Carlton Weaver Caused His Indictment

Mr. K. M. Roddie, candidate for state senator, publicly accused me of going to Muskogee and leaving an old indictment of last January which he claims had been thrown out and causing his arrest upon the charge of forgery which occurred last Friday afternoon. I hereby make a statement that I trust every man who loves fair play and justice will read and weigh.

If I have slandered Mr. Roddie, if I did go to Muskogee and revive a charge against him which is he says was thrown out and ignored last January and caused his arrest, I deserve to be criticised even condemned as a slanderer. On the other hand, if I had nothing to do with the charge, indictment or arrest, Mr. Roddie deserves to be criticised and indicted for his charges and indictments which I consider a slander and libel.

When Mr. Roddie says that I was in Muskogee on Friday for the purpose of causing his arrest, he says that which I deny. I did not go to Muskogee on Friday, nor did I go to Muskogee on any other day. I was in Muskogee on Saturday, and I was there for the purpose of seeing Mr. Roddie and talking to him about the charge against him. I was there for the purpose of seeing Mr. Roddie and talking to him about the charge against him. I was there for the purpose of seeing Mr. Roddie and talking to him about the charge against him.

streets of Ada Saturday. It pains me to have to make this defense for in order to prove to you that I had nothing to do with this matter, that Mr. Roddie wrongfully accuses me, I must necessarily give out information and facts that I would prefer withholding.

An official and certified copy of the complaint will speak more authoritatively than either Mr. Roddie or myself, and in order to substantiate that I had nothing whatever to do with the indictment or warrant and further substantiate that Mr. Roddie has falsely accused me, I feel compelled to publish the verbatim copy of the official indictment and warrant.

WHAT THEY SAY OF WILLIAMS

Copious Compliments for the Brilliant Durant Statesman

C. S. Freadwell of Tishomingo, who understands has withdrawn from the race for state senator to enter the race for judge of the supreme court against R. L. Williams of Durant. Why this sudden change we know not but we have been expecting it along that some kind of an excuse would be railroaded on the ticket to oppose Mr. Williams. Bob Williams has been under the vote of public service has been weighed by the common people and has been found to balance the scales of satisfaction with an up weight and to be a man for the people and necessarily calls out the fact that the railroads must put forth an effort to elect him. Freadwell is now that he has recently resigned attorney for the Frisco railroad. The question really arose why did Freadwell switch from one office to another just in time to have his name placed on the ticket. For us we prefer to have a man who has been tried and found to be true to every promise, to an untried railroad attorney. John W. Williams, a Tishomingo man, told Williams a flattering story.

Text copied from the Ada Evening News of May 23rd 1907.

The chapter article attached was cut from the Tribune of May 23rd 1907.

Just what I did for county roll up as entire voting strength for the people's choice—Bob Williams. The bill that attorneys of Durant.

Last week we called attention to the fact that it was rumored that the corporation would fight Bob Williams as a candidate for the supreme bench and that C. S. Freadwell, the Frisco attorney of Tishomingo, was being groomed for the place. He has since announced his candidacy. He has been for a long time an announced candidate for the new state senate. The question would naturally arise why did he enter the race of such a caliber. It comes to us that about two weeks ago he with other Frisco attorneys were called to a hearing at St. Louis, Mo., in consultation with the general solicitor of the system. As soon as he returned he set about to run for the supreme bench. He went to Muskogee on a Frisco pass for more than an hour and that party with the Frisco pass is now an ardent supporter of the Frisco attorney, Mr. Freadwell, and other indications are of similar import. Let the people beware—remember that when railroads can control they seek to destroy R. L. Williams who principally wrote the railroad and public service corporation provision in the constitution served the people and not the corporations, and he is the last man in the state that such corporations would want on the supreme bench. Vote for R. L. Williams the faithful public servant rather than for Freadwell who serves of corporation influence.

United States Court vs. R. M. Roddie—
Bench Warrant, Office.

The official complaint itself speaks. It will be observed that the indictment was returned by the Grand Jury on January 21, 1907, and the warrant was issued on the same date by the judge of the court. Why the warrant was not served earlier, or sooner after the bill was found. The court officials, not I, can answer.

When this bill was found and this warrant for arrest issued, I was in Guthrie attending to my duties in the constitutional convention. I did not know the court was even in session. I did not know that Ollis Weaver was going to be a candidate. Mr. Roddie himself had not announced. Furthermore, Mr. Roddie, as a lawyer, knows that a "Bench Warrant" cannot be issued except by the result of a Grand Jury indictment, therefore a jury and not an individual or set of individuals is responsible for this indictment. Information that Mr. Roddie was indicted last January came to my ears on a train more than a month ago. I did not repeat it to my most intimate friends. About a week ago I made a trip to Tulsa, Muskogee and South McAlester, in the interest of Henry M. Furman and a matter relating to business. While at Muskogee I was met on the street by a friend and was invited to his quarters. It was there that the matter of the indictment of Mr. Roddie again came to my ears, unsolicited, by a party who seemed to have a knowledge of Mr. Roddie's activity in Pontotoc county, also of him while a resident of Muskogee. The story that was told me on the train several weeks previous was corroborated at this time.

Mr. Roddie brings this publicly upon his own head by bringing me into this affair. What fair minded man can blame me for this defense?

Not until I returned from the country Friday did I know of the arrest, and agreed that no mention of it would be made in The Ada News, and were it not for Mr. Roddie's own accusation, The News would have given him the benefit of its silence.

I further invite anyone to make inquiry of court officials both at Muskogee and at Ada, as to whether I had anything to do with this matter.

I want this to burn into the mind of every man who reads this article: That I had rather see my brother, Ollis Weaver, go down in defeat on June 8th, than see R. M. Roddie charged with a crime of which he is not guilty. I pray that he is not guilty, and that should he not be so found, I want the world to know that he has been exonerated.

No man appreciates the preservation of character more than I, and I have never been successfully charged with slandering a fellow man. Those who remember the delegate campaign last fall can testify that neither my brother, Ollis Weaver, nor I personally or through The News uttered a single sentence derogatory to the character of Mr. Campbell, Mr. Rolenberry or Mr. Lawrence. The most sacred gift of God is a good name, and he who would falsely attack one's character, deserves condemnation.

Respectfully,

CARLTON WEAVER

A Voter Wants Information.

Mr. Editor
I notice in the Ardmore, a "Cruce" paper that the Cruce club of 23, composed of Dr. Fine, surgeon for several railroads as its president, and members of the lumber trust, who are mad at Haskell on account of his effort to destroy this trust are going to run a special train of seven coaches to Oklahoma City Friday night to hear Cruce speak and engage in bandwagon politics by fuss and show and return back to South McAlester and Atoka and thus convince the honest voters of those towns of the merits of Cruce, and that anyone can ride with them that wants. I don't know much about politics but I would like to vote right and I would like to know if this moneyed Cruce club at Muskogee and these railroads are in favor of a government that would be good for the laboring man and the farmer? Also why this lumber trust, club, and railroad club, and coal club, known as the "Cruce club" are interested in Mr. Cruce? Some one has told me that Mr. Haskell, restricts them and destroys their opportunity to make money and that they are mad at Haskell for this. I want to know if Mr. Haskell did mistreat them in this way and if Mr. Cruce would act so unfair with them. Further is the glimmer and glare of the Cruce banners on palace cars, the fuss and show of these Cruce boosters, and the single and glimmer of the money characters' gold a satisfactory argument to the reason and good judgment of the voters or is Haskell's record in the convention better. I want to vote an honest vote and if I don't know, will some of the spellbinders tell me and greatly oblige.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO SELECT VOTING PRECINCTS.

To the chairman and Members of the County Central Committee of Pontotoc County:

We, your committee appointed to divide the county of Pontotoc into voting precincts for the primary election to be held on the 8th of June, beg to submit herewith our report. We have endeavored to select the voting precincts as near to the middle and at the same time taking into consideration the fact that we are bound to conform to the justice precincts.

Whatever inconvenience any Democrat may be put to by this report is occasioned by the necessity of conforming voting precincts to justice precincts and commissioner's districts. Following is a list with descriptions of boundary of voting precincts, to wit:

The following changes have been made since drawing the boundaries described below:

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

E. C. Adams Has Brilliant Record—
Endorsed by Home Judge.

Hon. E. C. Adams, candidate for attorney general, who was among the first to announce for that office and who devoted his entire time during the campaign last fall in the interest of democracy, is recognized as one of the leading and successful lawyers of Oklahoma City.

Mr. Adams was born and raised in Anderson county, S. C., receiving his education at the North Georgia Agricultural and Military college, a branch of the University of Georgia. Soon after leaving college he was admitted to the practice of law, locating in his native city, Anderson, S. C.

He had the distinction of raising the question as to the constitutionality of the County Salary Act passed by the general assembly of South Carolina in 1907, which, after a strong legal battle, he won, the supreme court declaring the act unconstitutional.

Within a year he also had the County Government Act declared unconstitutional by a decision of the same court. Judge Nance, of South Carolina, in writing to Roy Stafford, Editor of the Oklahoman, said of Mr. Adams: "As to his ability I will say that no young man ever came to the bar in this state who rose to eminence and acquired the confidence of the people as rapidly as did Mr. Adams. Since the adoption of the new constitution of this state there has been only three laws declared unconstitutional and Mr. Adams was the attorney for two of these cases.

In 1900 he succeeded in having the County Government law throughout the state declared unconstitutional after a bitter fight, and since that time he has been recognized as one of the best constitutional lawyers in the state. There is no reason why all democrats as well as all republicans who desire to see a clean man in office, should not support him. He is honest, straightforward and a high-toned gentleman, and has the ability to fill the position to which he aspires."

CARLTON WEAVER'S DEFENSE

Facts Controvert Roddie's Charge
That Carlton Weaver Caused His Indictment

Mr. K. M. Roddie, candidate for state senator, publicly accused me of going to Muskogee and reviving an old indictment of last January which he claims had been thrown out and causing his arrest upon the charge of forgery which occurred last Friday afternoon. I hereby make a statement that I trust every man who loves fair play and justice will read and weigh.

If I have slandered Mr. Roddie if I did go to Muskogee and revive a charge against him which as he says was thrown out and ignored last January and caused his arrest I deserve to be criticised even condemned as a slanderer. On the other hand if I had nothing to do with the charge when it was first made by Mr. Roddie, as he says, to be criticised and indicted for the crime which I could not defend myself from.

When Mr. Roddie says that I was indicted for forgery on the 14th of January, he says that which is a lie. I was indicted on the 14th of January for a crime which I did not commit. I was indicted for a crime which I did not commit. I was indicted for a crime which I did not commit.

streets of Ada Saturday.

It pains me to have to make this defense for in order to prove to you that I had nothing to do with this matter that Mr. Roddie wrongfully accuses me I must necessarily give out information and facts that I would prefer withholding.

An official and certified copy of the complaint will speak more authoritatively than either Mr. Roddie or myself and in order to substantiate that I had nothing whatever to do with the indictment or warrant and further substantiate that Mr. Roddie has falsely accused me I feel compelled to publish the verbatim copy of the official indictment and warrant.

GENERAL FORM OF INDICTMENT.
United States of America, Indian Territory, Western District ss.
In the United States Court in the Western District of the Indian Territory, at the City of Muskogee, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the indictment and warrant returned against Carlton Weaver on the 14th day of January, 1907.

INDICTMENT FOR FORGERY.
The Grand Jurors of the United States of America, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the indictment and warrant returned against Carlton Weaver on the 14th day of January, 1907.

EARLY HEARING EXPECTED

Appeal From Court's Anti-Statehood Ruling

Guthrie, Okla., May 28.—Challenging the authority of the defendant in error G. E. Autrey to institute a suit either in a private or official capacity, and declaring that the constitutional convention has the power to create counties under the section of the enabling act which gives the convention authority to form a constitution and state government for the proposed state, attorneys for the constitutional convention filed their briefs in the supreme court in appealing from the decision of Judge Hancock of Tulsa.

In the case made filed today, the solution was asked of the permanent injunction granted by Judge Hancock restraining Gov. Bryant, President Murray and Secretary Young of the convention from issuing an election proclamation until the district court of this county when an injunction was asked by citizens of Guthrie.

It is maintained that the convention has power to divide for elections in such new counties as the Oklahoma election law has no provision for creating such election machinery.

It is also held that the convention may adjourn and reconvene for the purpose of providing an ordinance for an election in the new counties.

In perfecting an appeal the state court is made that the district court erred in making the injunction permanent and the supreme court is requested to dissolve it.

The court will convene on June 4 in the regular June session and in all probability the case will be advanced on the docket and heard early in the session.

It is rumored today that Chief Justice Bradford may not sit in the case in the supreme court but passed upon the same question in the district court of this county when an injunction was asked by citizens of Guthrie.

WHAT THEY SAY OF WILLIAMS

Copious Compliments for the Brilliant Durant Statesman

C. S. Fendwell of Tishomingo, who understands has withdrawn from the race for state senator to enter the race for judge of the supreme court against R. L. Williams of Durant. Why this sudden change we know not but we have been expecting all along that some kind of an excuse would be railroaded on the ticket to oppose Mr. Williams. But Williams has been under the vote of public service has been weighed by the common people and has been found to balance the scales of satisfaction with an up weight and to be a man for the people and necessarily calls out the fact that the railroads must put forth an effort to defeat him. Fendwell is now if he has not recently resigned attorney for the Frisco railroad. The question really arose why did Fendwell switch from one office to another in time to have his name placed on the ticket. For us we prefer to have a man who has been tried and found to be true to every promise for an honest railroad attorney. Johnson says we believe will give him R. L. Williams a bettering motion.

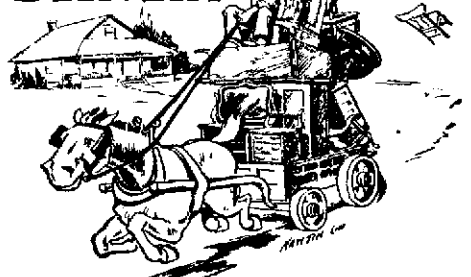

Mr. Fendwell came from the Midland Valley May 24th 1907.

The champion for the ticket were out from Spring Branch of May 24th 1907.

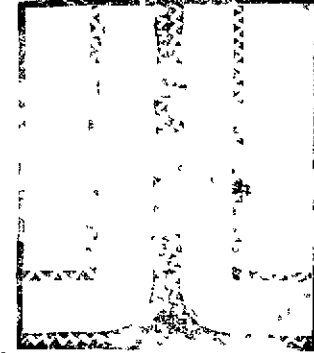

I saw watch Fendwell county roll up its entire voting strength for the proponent's choice—R. L. Williams, the brilliant attorney of Durant.

Last week we called attention to the fact that it was rumored that the corporations would fight Bob Williams as a candidate for the supreme bench and that C. S. Fendwell the Frisco attorney of Tishomingo was being named for the place. He has since announced his candidacy. He has been a long time in the state senate. The rumor would naturally arise why did he enter the race at such a late date. It comes to us that about two weeks ago he with other Frisco attorneys was called to a meeting at St. Louis, Mo., in connection with the general collector of the system. As soon as he returned he set about to run for the supreme bench. He went to Durant.

THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE

E. C. PATTON DESERVES IT

(From the Chickasaw News)
Johnson county will take an especial pride in rolling up a practically solid vote for our townsman Mr. E. C. Patton, candidate for clerk of the supreme court, and the entire state should be interested in the election of such man. Not only is Mr. Patton thoroughly competent for the office he is seeking, but due weight should be given to the fact that owing to the position he occupied in the constitutional convention is joined and minute clerk he has been compelled to do a large amount of work for which he will receive no pay. It is true the delegates went down in their pockets and put up money to pay a number of the employers rather than have them suffer the hardships they themselves were compelled to undergo by reason of the parsimony of congress in refusing to appropriate. But Mr. Patton was too patriotic to take money for his services that had to be raised in that way and therefore declined to receive any compensation for services rendered after the government appropriation was exhausted. Nor did Mr. Patton's work cease with the adjournment of the convention. Owing to the enormous amount of work that piled up incident to the closing of the convention Mr. Patton found an amount of work that can scarcely be realized on his hands to complete after the adjournment. Since his return home owing to the complications caused by the injunction proceedings he has been rendering valuable aid in assisting President Martin in a number of matters which require attention that could be performed only by some one entirely familiar with the work of the convention in addition to which he was compelled to make a special trip to Guthrie to furnish the attorneys for the convention with certain data to be used in their argument before Judge Hancock in the injunction proceedings. These services Mr. Patton has been cheerfully to the neglect of his own affairs, and will account to his friends for his seeming inactivity in not making a more active personal campaign. Mr. Patton deserves well at the hands of the people of Oklahoma.

Before the candidates of the two parties vote the primary of the democratic party there are two candidates for the nomination. In view of the importance of this office the undersigned members of the Choctaw county party attention to the qualifications of Hon. R. L. Williams of Bryan county. He has been a member of the bar of the Choctaw district for over ten years and we can attest that as a lawyer of ability and fairness he is the person of our choice. As chairman of the committee on corporations in the constitutional convention he drafted the provisions concerning corporations which the nation has pronounced the best of any of the states of the American Union. He has shown himself to be a man of the common people and a real tool of the corporations. Every railroad man in the entire state owes him a debt of gratitude for the fellow servant provision. His opponent is a railroad attorney. We will submit to the voters, will not the constitution be better construed by its author than a railroad lawyer?

We therefore heartily commend to the democracy Hon. R. L. Williams for justice of the supreme court from this the 2nd judicial district and would respectfully ask you to give him your support.

(Caddo Herald, May 25, 1907)
The Herald believes in giving honor to whom honor is due. Bob Williams, of Durant is a candidate for the superintendent to him. While in the formation of counties Caddo did not get what she wanted yet she was never deceived by Bob Williams. He told is all along, where he stood and in honest made could not have stood in any other hall. The 10th district elected him and his duty was to give his people as good a county as possible. To show the integrity and honest honesty of the man, had he said the word he could have secured easily a county for Bennington where he has more personal and real property than elsewhere. He would not do it. He preferred giving his people a county in which they could live without the dangerous taxation that will surely come to the smaller counties. Had he secured the county for Bennington his property would have doubled in value, and he would have become independently wealthy. The writer knows Bob Williams well. He knows that his stand for the people is no demagoguery. He knows that he is true to every promise either or otherwise, and knows him to be a man of clean personal life and of fine legal knowledge. His being a member of the constitutional convention fits him more than ever to be one of the members of the supreme court. He knows the letter as well as the intent of the law and one of the most important things is to have our first cases properly construed in the supreme court so that it will be precedent for future litigation. Bob Williams is the man to do this. This is not a bold announcement but it is honestly thought and honestly given because the Herald desires true clean men elected to the supreme court and none are more worthy than our own Bob.

Removed from Premises and House Fired.
June 1, P. M. May 25—The residence of Thomas E. Shaw in the eastern part of the city was burned last night by masked incendiaries. They entered the kitchen where Mr. Shaw was asleep in a chair bound and gagged him and left him unconscious in a pile of weeds some distance from the house after which they set fire to it.
The house and contents were destroyed with a loss of $3,000, covered by insurance. There is no clue.
Mr. Shaw was formerly publisher of the Tulsa Times and his family is prominent in social and religious circles.

They are cheaper and better than either lumber, stone or concrete. The ideal material for cellar, wall, barns, stables, warehouses, residences, etc. We make to order hollow brick for partitions ready to plaster on. No lathing required. We make drain tile from 8 to 18 inches in diameter, and vitrified sidewalk and street paving brick, red, chocolate, brown and salt-glazed face brick. Nothing will go through fire and stand but burnt clay. Lumber burns up and stone and cement crumbles from heat and water in case of fire. Ask them at San Francisco. Write for further information.

United States Court vs R. M. Roddie
Bail required $1,000.00
Bench Warrant, Office.

The official complaint itself speaks.

It will be observed that the indictment was returned by the Grand Jury on January 21, 1907, and the warrant was issued on the same date by the Judge of the court. Why the warrant was not served earlier, or sooner after the bill was found, The court officials, not I, can answer.

When this bill was found and this warrant for arrest issued, I was in Guthrie attending to my duties in the constitutional convention. I did not know the court was even in session. I did not know that Ollis Weaver was going to be a candidate. Mr. Roddie himself had not announced. Furthermore, Mr. Roddie, as a lawyer, knows that a "Bench Warrant" cannot be issued except by the result of a Grand Jury indictment, therefore a jury and not an individual or set of individuals is responsible for this indictment. Information that Mr. Roddie was indicted last January came to my ears on a train more than a month ago. I did not repeat it to my most intimate friends. About a week ago I made a trip to Tulsa, Muskogee and South McAlester, in the interest of Henry M. Furman and a matter relating to business. While at Muskogee I was met on the street by a friend and was invited to his quarters. It was there that the matter of the indictment of Mr. Roddie again came to my ears, unsolicited, by a party who seemed to have a knowledge of Mr. Roddie's activity in Pontotoc county, also of him while a resident of Muskogee. The story that was told me on the train several weeks previous was corroborated at this time.

Mr. Roddie brings this publicity upon his own head by bringing me into this affair. What fair minded man can blame me for this defense?

Not until I returned from the country Friday did I know of the arrest, and agreed that no mention of it would be made in The Ada News, and were it not for Mr. Roddie's own accusation. The News would have given him the benefit of its silence.

I further invite anyone to make inquiry of court officials both at Muskogee and at Ada, as to whether I had anything to do with this matter. I want this to turn into the mind of every man who reads this article: That I had rather see my brother, Ollis Weaver, go down in defeat on June 8th, than see R. M. Roddie charged with a crime of which he is not guilty. I pray that he is not guilty, and that should he not be so found, I want the world to know that he has been exonerated.

No man appreciates the preservation of character more than I, and I have never been successfully charged with slandering a fellow man. Those who remember the delegate campaign last fall can testify that neither my brother, Ollis Weaver, nor I, personally or through The News uttered a single sentence derogatory to the character of Mr. Campbell, Mr. Robertson or Mr. Lawrence. The most sacred gift of God is a good name, and he who would falsify attack one's character, deserves condemnation.

Respectfully,
CARLTON WEAVER

A Voter Wants Information.

Mr. Editor

I notice in the Ardmoreite, a Cruce paper that the Cruce club of 23, composed of Dr. Fire, surgeon for several railroads as its president, and members of the lumber trust, who are mad at Haskell on account of his effort to destroy this trust are going to run a special train of seven coaches to Oklahoma City Friday night to hear Cruce speak and engage in bandwagon politics by fuss and show and return back to South McAlester and Atoka and thus convince the honest voters of those towns of the merits of Cruce, and that anyone can ride with them that wants. I don't know much about politics but I would like to vote right and I would like to know if this moneyed Cruce club at Muskogee and these railroads are in favor of a government that would be good for the laboring man and the farmer? Also why this lumber trust club, and railroad club, and coal club, known as the "Cruce club" are interested in Mr. Cruce? Some one has told me that Mr. Haskell, restricts them and destroys their opportunity to make money and that they are mad at Haskell for this. I want to know if Mr. Haskell did mistreat them in this way and if Mr. Cruce would not so unfair with them. Further is the glimmer and glare of the Cruce banners on palace cars, the fuss and show of these Cruce boosters, and the jingle and clatter of the money changers' gold a satisfactory argument to the reason and good judgment of the voters in S. Haskell's record in the convention better. I want to vote an honest vote and if I don't know, will some of the spellbinders tell me and greatly oblige.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

E. C. Adams Has Brilliant Record—
Endorsed by Home Judge.

Hon. E. G. McAdams, candidate for attorney general, who was among the first to announce for that office and who devoted his entire time during the campaign last fall in the interest of democracy, is recognized as one of the leading and successful lawyers of Oklahoma City.

Mr. McAdams was born and raised in Anderson county, S. C., receiving his education at the North Georgia Agricultural and Military college, a branch of the University of Georgia. Soon after leaving college he was admitted to the practice of law, locating in his native city, Anderson, S. C.

He had the distinction of raising the question as to the constitutionality of the County Salary Act passed by the general assembly of South Carolina in 1897, which, after a strong legal battle, he won, the supreme court declaring the act unconstitutional.

Within a year he also had the County Government Act declared unconstitutional by a decision of the same court. Judge Nance of South Carolina, in writing to Roy Stafford, Editor of the Oklahoman, said of Mr. McAdams: "As to his ability I will say that no young man ever came to the bar in this state who rose to eminence and acquired the confidence of the people as rapidly as did Mr. McAdams. Since the adoption of the new constitution of this state there has been only three laws declared unconstitutional and Mr. McAdams was the attorney for two of these cases.

In 1900 he succeeded in having the County Government law throughout the state declared unconstitutional after a bitter fight, and since that time he has been recognized as one of the best constitutional lawyers in the state. There is no reason why all democrats as well as all republicans who desire to see a clean man in office, should not support him. He is honest, straightforward and a high-toned gentleman, and has the ability to fill the position to which he aspires."
